

Park St & The Triangle

Park Street is a vibrant and bustling high street in Bristol known for its steep incline and eclectic mix of daytime and nightlife entertainment. Its unique charm lies in the combination of a lively urban atmosphere and the historic Brandon Hill park, providing a serene escape from the city's buzz.

The Triangle, situated at the top of Park Street, is a dynamic hub of nightlife. With an array of bars, clubs and takeaways, it offers a lively atmosphere for night owls seeking excitement. For early-birds, it also has some fantastic restaurants, cafés and shops and is well connected to the rest of Bristol by foot or public transport.

Park Street and The Triangle's iconic skyline, adorned with historic architecture, adds to its allure, making it a popular destination for locals and visitors alike.

Here are some places we think are a must-visit!

Where To Go

Taka Taka

A Bristol rite-of-passage, this late-night Greek sandwich shop has some of the best and biggest wraps you can get your hands on. Get yourself a delicious Magic Roll (but maybe finish it in the morning).

The fastest route to Italy lies in the heart of Park St. This family-run cosy eatery has a short and sweet menu with heavenly authentic dishes, and a plethora of options for all diets.

Moltobuono

Mrs. Potts

The mother of hot chocolate, this café-come-paradise is a beacon for all chocolate lovers. There are six types of chocolate to choose from and even plant-based whipped cream for vegans!

Originally a group of pizza lovers hopping around the UK festival circuit, Pizzarova has established itself as one of the pizza giants of Bristol. Plating up delicious sourdough masterpieces and plenty of refreshments, you won't leave hungry.

Pizzarova

Pizza On The Park

Using the Italian process of Biga, this 'guilt-free' pizza joint serves up delicious fluffy dough with both classic and unique toppings. Pop down for plenty of deals including lunch-time offers and bottomless bubbly!

A wonderful bakery offering a divine array of traditional pastries that will transport your taste buds straight to the Mediterranean.

Sotiris

Swoon

A terrific ice cream parlour where the ice cream is made fresh on-site. The pistachio ice cream is an award-winning flavour!

Paying homage to the New York bagel culture, the people at Little Bagel Co. provide delicious lunch options that are as affordable as they are convenient.

Little Bagel Co.

Boston Tea Party

You may have seen this coffee-cup-reducing giant before but this is where the magic began. Head upstairs for some fantastic views of Park St and in the summer bathe in their sun-trap terrace. You will not regret it.

This fun and relaxed restaurant serves up a delectable array of traditional Japanese street food from sushi to sake. If you're looking for something unique for your next birthday, pop in here for their Salmon birthday cake!

Izakaya

The Cloakroom Cafe

Ever fancied drinking a coffee in a converted Edwardian Public loo? Cross another one off the bucket list at this beautifully renovated establishment.

St George's

Within the walls of a beautifully converted 200-year-old Georgian church, St George's, a 580-seat concert hall exudes a truly special ambiance. This historic venue serves as a haven for some of Britain's finest performances.

Thought to be the oldest public park in the country, Brandon Hill is an enchanting area featuring sweeping views of Bristol, the perfect picnic spot. Plus, set amongst a beautiful nature reserve, you can ascend the 32-metre historic Cabot Tower for a full 360 view of Bristol's landscape.

Brandon Hill

RWA

Housed within a Grade 2 listed building and recently undergoing a remarkable renovation, the Royal West of England Academy has preserved its rich heritage while embracing contemporary ideas. Providing an extensive programme of exhibitions, events, workshops, talks, and lectures to the public.

Boasting nineteen galleries spread across three floors, this institution captivates visitors with its diverse collection of art and historical artefacts. The museum is always free to enter and the art gallery regularly hosts an exciting array of events and exhibitions.

Bristol Museum & Art Gallery

Vintage Shopping

Bristol is full of second-hand shops and Park St is the best place to start. There's Uncle Sam's Vintage, Loot and Sobey's to get you started and when you're ready for some serious rack-diving, both floors of The Vintage Thrift Store will have plenty to offer. Plenty of charity shops too!

Bristol is famed for its music scene, birthing some of the UK's most iconic DJ's from the last few decades. Witness the beginning of a new generation of artists at nightclubs like Basement 45 or catch an unforgettable show at OMG.

Nightlife

The Georgian House Museum

Step back in time and see what the residence of a plantation and slave owner would have looked like around 1790. Explore the various rooms showcasing the living quarters of both Jonn Pinney and the enslaved man, Pero Jones. Plus it's free entry all year round!

Centrally-Located Flat in Period Building
by Mariann & Dave

Gorgeous 2-Bed
by Rebecca

Charming & Spacious Garden Flat
by Jamie

Big Bristol House
by Joanna & Brook

Unique Apartment in Historic Crescent
by Sarah