

City Centre

Bristol city centre is a vibrant and dynamic hub that beautifully blends history with modernity. It's famous for its thriving restaurant scene, where culinary enthusiasts can savour a diverse range of flavours from around the world while exploring independent boutiques that offer unique, hand-crafted treasures.

Bristol's commitment to nurturing artists is evident throughout, with vivid and thought-provoking murals adorning walls and alleys, and anywhere the cherry-picker will take them. The late-night music scene is consistently jam-packed with live performances and club nights catering to a wide spectrum of tastes.

The city centre buzzes with regular markets, where you can discover artisanal goods, local produce, and vintage finds, creating a communal atmosphere that champions local businesses and entrepreneurs.

Here are some places we think are a must-visit!

Where To Go

The Ox

Chic steak joint and cocktail bar, tucked away in the depths of a basement bank vault adorned with stunning murals. The perfect blend of sophistication and history for an unforgettable dining experience.

Bristol's best-known secret cocktail bar. Set across 3 floors this hidden gem has one of the most interesting cocktail menus around and the service is next to none. We'd recommend booking as it's usually pretty busy!

Oowee Vegan

This is the place to go if you want good vegan comfort food. A true Bristol original that's dominating the vegan food market in multiple cities, no doubt soon to take over the world!

Join Tuk Tuk in their journey through Asian street food at this cosy, understated diner. Everything's fresh, delicious and an absolute deal. Don't forget to BYOB!

Milk Thistle

Tuk Tuk

Brozen Bar

A frozen cocktail haven, using liquid nitrogen to create visually striking and refreshing drinks. They also offer master classes for those looking to learn the art, making it a top spot for flavour enthusiasts.

Four Wise Monkeys is your go-to spot in Old City for casual dining with a side of retro Tokyo vibes. They serve up a tantalizing mix of Asian-fusion dishes in an easy-going atmosphere.

Four Wise Monkeys

Left Handed Giant

One of the most underrated bars in Bristol. Right on the waterfront, the bar has a huge open front; they serve legions of craft ales and flavour-packed pizza from the kitchen-wizards at Pizza Is Lovely.

A charming traditional Brittany Creperie known for its authentic Galettes. Traditionally made with buckwheat, Chez Marcel offers a naturally gluten free taste of the region's culinary heritage.

Chez Marcel

Hippy Chippy

A popular food stall in the heart of Broadmead, known for serving up delicious homemade chips with a wide array of delicious sauce options. Hippy Chippy is also a familiar sight at various festivals.

This family-run café will transport you to the Italian coast with its mouth-watering food and pleasant service. Vegans beware, there's too much choice, with an equal share of meat, vegetarian and plant-based options!

Taste Of Napoli

Secret Cafe

Tucked away in the church yard, Secret Café dishes out some seriously yummy homemade Spanish treats. It's the kind of place where you can chill and munch in a peaceful spot, away from the usual hustle and bustle.

What To Do

Street Art Tour

Bristol's reputation for embracing street art precedes it and this tour guides you around the best places to find the work of established and emerging artists brightening the local scenery. You'll want to take this tour every time you visit because the landscapes always changing!

St. Nick's, a historic market place in Bristol, is a bustling hub that welcomes visitors daily with its lively market stalls and vibrant food market. Notably, it has played a crucial role in nurturing the beginnings of some of Bristol's most successful restaurants. This dynamic culinary and shopping destination embodies the city's spirit of innovation and showcases its rich culinary heritage.

St Nicks

Castle Park

A vibrant urban oasis that offers a diverse range of attractions. With a herb garden, historic church, vibrant Sikh temple and picturesque bandstand, the park provides a serene escape within the bustling city. Additionally, on brighter days, you'll find it buzzing with locals soaking up the sun.

A charming cobbled street in Bristol dating back to the 1600s, home to a delightful mix of independent shops, a cosy pub, one of the last video rental stores, and a delightful bakery. Visitors can also enjoy board games at Chance & Counters cafe or explore captivating artworks at the nearby gallery, making it a cultural and culinary hub for both locals and tourists.

Christmas Steps

Late Night Music

For those seeking underground bands and late-night beats, SWX, Mr. Wolfs, Dareshack and Strange Brew are go-to spots, where talented artists keep the city alive well into the early hours. Bristol is also home to the iconic Bristol Beacon who've hosted a range of the world's most prominent artists.

Cabot Circus in Bristol is the ultimate shopping and entertainment destination, boasting a massive cinema, a delectable variety of food options, a blend of independent boutiques alongside renowned brands. Not to mention, it's a hub for regular events, ensuring there's always something exciting happening.

Cabot Circus

Bristol Markets

Bristol is famed for its variety of markets including The Harbourside Street Food Market and Finzels Reach Market which offer a delightful array of international flavours along the picturesque waterfront. Additionally, in the Old City area there's a bustling flea market as well as a mouth-watering street food and a farmer's market, making it a treasure trove for everyone.

Modern & Spacious Flat
by Rebecca

Gorgeous 2-Bed
by Rebecca

Stunning Period Building
by Mariann & Dave

Historic 2-Bed
by Helen

Bright, Book-Filled Flat
by Lyndsey