

Harbourside

One of the most dynamic and evolving parts of Bristol, those familiar with the city from years gone by would struggle to recognise the Harbourside now. In the summer the area comes alive with festivals celebrating the best of the South West with music, food, art, dancing, films and plenty of markets to treasure-seek.

Many of Bristol's major attractions can be found here; with multiple museums, art galleries and a cinema all positioned close to the water's edge. Regular ferries connect quiet pockets of waterfront tranquillity to more vibrant ones or take a stroll round at your leisure with plenty of bridges to loop back.

The latest addition is the shipping container community of Wapping Wharf which hosts some of the best newcomers to Bristol's food and drink scene.

Here are some places we think are a must-visit!

Where To Go
