

Stokes Croft & Cheltenham Rd

Stokes Croft is a local gem known for its vibrant culture and historic charm. At its core lies Turbo Island, a dynamic canvas for street art and community hub. This neighbourhood oozes creativity, where history intertwines with artistic energy. It's a must-visit for those seeking Bristol's unique character.

Cheltenham Road, running through the heart of Bristol, is a bustling street that beautifully marries the historic and the contemporary. The iconic arches along Cheltenham Road are a testament to the city's adaptive reuse, now a beacon for independent shops, cafés and creative spaces.

These two streets bring out the city's soul. From the wild street art to the historic buildings, it's a mix of old and new, and that's what makes Bristol's culture so captivating.

Here are some places we think are a must-visit!

Where To Go

The Canteen

A local gem renowned for its exceptional locally sourced cuisine, featuring an ever-changing menu that reflects the freshest seasonal ingredients. Make sure to stay a while for their evening entertainment!

Koocha has folks lining up for their insanely delicious dishes that put a modern spin on classic Persian flavours. This plant-based restaurant is a hit with all palates and guaranteed to have you coming back.

Koocha

Poco

A seasonal tapas restaurant with an air of romance and sophistication. Its ever-changing menu of small, delectable plates is the embodiment of culinary innovation and is a staple of Bristol's vibrant food scene.

This charming small Korean restaurant has become a hotspot for young patrons seeking authentic Korean cuisine. With its trendy ambience and exquisite dishes, it's the go-to place for a culinary adventure.

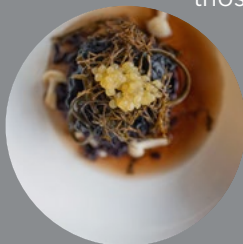

Bokman

The Pipe & Slippers

With its unpretentious charm and strong libations, this pub is a hidden gem. Featuring delicious Sunday roasts and a cocktail menu that boasts the famous Pipe Dream - a concoction not for the faint-hearted.

Famous for its gigantic 1-meter dosa and an array of moreish Sri Lankan dishes, Nadu offers a mouthwatering exploration of authentic flavours. It's a must-visit for those seeking an unforgettable taste of Sri Lankan cuisine.

Nadu

Flow

Offers a sophisticated experience for those seeking fine-dining with a plant-based twist. Its elegant ambience and innovative menu make it a top choice for those looking to savour upscale vegan cuisine in a chic setting.

This chic and popular Vietnamese cafe offers a relaxed setting to savour authentic cuisine. It's a go-to spot for those seeking classics like pho, banh-mi and bao, in a stylish atmosphere.

The Viet Kitchen

Caribbean Croft

This lively and independent restaurant is celebrated for its fun and welcoming atmosphere. With a menu full of Caribbean delights, it's a popular choice for anyone looking for big and bold flavours.

A beloved brunch destination in the heart of Bristol, known for its mouthwatering brunch offerings that attract long queues of eager patrons. It's a top choice for those looking to start their day with a delightful and satisfying meal.

Crafty Egg

Pie Minister

Pieminister's flagship restaurant is a cosy retreat where the heavenly pies they're renowned for, take centre stage. Their innovative pie-making skills have stormed their way into all corners of the UK and you can experience where it all started.

What To Do

Cube Cinema

Cube Cinema, a microplex located in a building with a rich history as a community arts venue, was founded by four visionary artists in 1998. This unique space has continued to be a hub for avant-garde film screenings, live performances, and other unconventional experiences, maintaining a legacy of independent and experimental art.

Stokes Croft and Cheltenham Road are the music playgrounds of Bristol, especially after dark. You've got Lakota, one of the city's biggest clubs, going toe-to-toe with The Love Inn, No. 51, Take 5 Cafe, Attic Bar/Full Moon and Crofters Rights, all blasting tunes from DJs and live bands regularly. There's also The Canteen, who've got world music covered - it'll keep you dancing all night long!

Late Night Music

Here Gallery

Here Gallery and Bookshop is the spot for art lovers to see some amazing prints from an ever-changing variety of creators. Whether you're into local talent or artists from far and wide, they've got it all hanging on their walls. It's the go-to place to soak up some artistic vibes and snag a piece to take home with you.

Turbo Island not only serves as a canvas for local artists but also as a gathering place for the eclectic mix of locals. Providing a sense of belonging and a backdrop for shared experiences, further cementing its status as a unique and cherished element of Bristol's cultural landscape.

Turbo Island

PRSC

The Peoples Republic of Stokes Croft (PRSC) stands as a prominent arts collective and an influential force in preserving Bristol's vibrant street art culture through activism. Embracing an anti-consumerism ethos, they promote a sustainable lifestyle and you can actively engage and support the local community by participating in their consistently popular China Decorating workshops and attending a variety of events.

The Arches in Bristol are an impressive architectural testament to the city's heritage, inviting you to walk under history itself. These iconic railway arches have retained their original charm, offering a glimpse into the industrial legacy of the area, now standing as an emblem of Bristol's rich past.

The Arches

Independent Shopping

Cheltenham Road and Stokes Croft are right at the bottom of Gloucester Road, famous for being the UK's epicentre of independent shops. Gems like That Thing (run by awesome women), KBK Shoes and Loot Vintage will have you kitted out like a true Bristolian. There's Love It, which is perfect for locally crafted goodies and music lovers, you'll be stoked with Collectors Cave and Plastic Wax for records - a shopper's paradise.

Cosy Boutique Apartment
by Amber

Funky Flat
by Charlie

Restful Victoria Apartment
by Lara

Lovely 2-Bed
by Kate & Jamie

Bohemian Family Home
by Thomas & Abi